

FLEET
SCIENCE
CENTER

Adult
Programs

Connecting Everyone to the Power and Possibilities of Science to Create a Better World

FLEET
SCIENCE
CENTER

Science
Interested

Somewhat
Science
Interested

Not Science
Interested

Sharp Minds

- Traditional Lecture Series on various scientific topics
- Speaker driven
- 45 min PowerPoint presentation, followed by 15 min Q&A
- Reduced admission for guest 65 and better. $10 incl. lecture, movie, exhibits
- Engaging visitors to the Fleet at a deeper level

Exploring Ethics

- Free partnership event with UCSD's Center for Ethics in Science and Technology
- Traditional lecture with moderated discussion
- Mainly speaker, moderator driven
- 30 min PowerPoint presentation by speaker, followed by Q&A with moderator, followed by Q&A with audience.

Suds & Science

- Science Café style talk
- Audience driven
- 20-30 verbal presentation, followed by 30 min of discussion with the audience
- Minimal fee of $5
- Bringing science to 3 different neighborhoods on a rotating, monthly basis: Vista, Chula Vista and Liberty Station

Crossover: Where Comics & Science Meet

- Traditional panel discussion
- 60 min moderated panel discussion, followed by 30 min of Q&A
- Brings together comic book writers and local scientists to discuss
- Free event
- Surprising and engaging people with science where they live and play

Two Scientists Walk Into a Bar

- Traditional panel discussion
- 60 min moderated panel discussion, followed by 30 min of Q&A
- Brings together comic book writers and local scientists to discuss
- Free event
- Surprising and engaging people with science where they live and play

